Because our department embraces diversity and believes a diverse student body is a foundation for meaningful training, we encourage you to share any demographic information, unique identities, characteristics, or backgrounds you believe are relevant to your future in the profession. Although we are aware that your whole is far greater than the sum of these parts, knowledge of your identities and backgrounds are important to us. Please list any critical identities, backgrounds, or characteristic descriptors in the format below:

1. ___________________________________________________

2. ___________________________________________________

3. ___________________________________________________

4. ___________________________________________________